Dedication

Sam Stratton Bone

The Phoenix Yearbook staff would like to dedicate the Centennial Edition of The Phoenix to Mr. Sam Stratton Bone, a loyal alumnus and member of the Board of Trustees since 1929. Mr. Bone graduated from Cumberland in 1925 and served as Business Manager of the University during the 1930s and 40s. He still devotes much of his time to the University through his participation on the Board of Trustee and being involved with Cumberland's activities. It is dedication like that of Mr. Bone's that Cumberland University maintains its high quality education and long-standing tradition.

Sam S. Bone, Class of 1925

Dr. Ray C. Phillips

Dr. Ray C. Phillips retired as President of CU in December of 1994. Dr. Phillips joined the staff at Cumberland in 1983 and became president in 1991. He has earned a BS degree in Social Studies, Science, and Math, and a Master of Arts in Education Administration and Social Studies, and a Doctor of Education degree in Educational Administration and Related Disciplines.

ORGANIZATIONS

President's Association Of Students

Students are selected by the steering committee, the advisor, and the president to host various University functions and social events. The President's Association of Students also serve as ambassadors for CU, helping in recruiting new students.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association has stayed very busy this year, serving the campus as well as the community. SGA sponsored the following activities: University Forums, Blood Drive, Parents Day, Halloween Ball, Pink Floyd/U2 Laser Light Show, Wonderful Wednesday activities, and numerous other activities. SGA has done a great job this year!

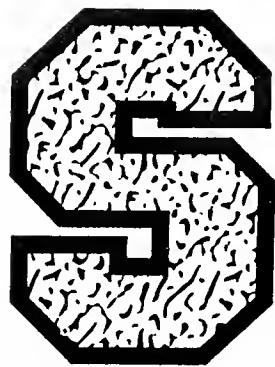

Thanks to president Leann Allison, the annual SGA Halloween Dance was a success.

Student Tennessee Education Association

STEA, or the Student Tennessee Education Association, is an organization recommended for those who plan to develop a career in the teaching profession. Having several contacts with area educational systems, STEA is a great opportunity to develop oneself as a student and as a teacher.

The 1994-95 STEA Student Teachers.

The members of the 1995 Student Tennessee Education Association.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union, or BSU, welcomes and respects all students, no matter what their denomination. BSU is affiliated with the Tennessee Baptist Convention and meets on Thursdays at 12:00 in the BSU house. BSU sponsors fellowship and food, extra Bible studies during the week, a retreat, cookouts, and other fun activities for anyone wishing to attend. The BSU also participated in state and regional meetings with other BSU's. BSU is directed by Rev. Ken Trammel.

THE SPORTS

STRAIGHT FROM THE DAWG'S MOUTH

Grrrrrrr

Volleyball

The Lady Volleydawgs saw a fantastic season come to an end in the NAIA Mid-South Regional at Georgetown College. This was the first time a CU volleyball team had advanced to regional competition. Cumberland finished the season with 39 wins versus 9 losses, their most wins in a season ever, surpassing the mark of 38 wins they had established the two previous seasons. The Lady Volleydawgs won their 3rd Tennessee Collegiate Athletic Conference championship in the last four years.

Laura Jane Gaderick was the "Top Dawg" for the ladies, as she averaged 2.5 blocks per game and was ranked nationally in that category. Gaderick was named Player of the Year in the TCAC and was also named to the NAIA Mid-South Region Team. Sophomore Lisa Holoran had an outstanding 9.4

assists per game, and she was the top server with .3 aces per contest. Gaderick, Holoran, and Stacy Parson were all named to the All-Conference Team.

Coach Dwayne Deering will see a seasoned group of veterans return for next season as only two seniors will depart the team. Good luck to Zina Mowry and NAIA Academic All-American Anna Heimer when they graduate this spring. Next season's pre-conference schedule is one of the toughest the Lady Volleydawgs have ever undertaken, but it will surely prepare them for a tight conference race that is sure to develop. Coach Deering was also named TCAC Volleyball Coach of the Year.

EDITORIALS

College is a time of learning, a time of growing...a time of maturing. But, what exactly is mature? Is it having the body and the fashion sense that everyone would desire? Is it having everyone look up to you and think you're "hip" or "cool"? Or is it something more?

I contend that maturity is much more than just an action or appearance; I contend that these things are just the possible end results of maturity, that maturity is, in fact, something that comes from within.

Maturity is first and foremost the ability to be who you are and, more importantly, to be COMFORTABLE with who you are. It is the ability to look at yourself in the mirror and not cringe at the reflection, and it is the ability to wake up in the morning and know that you are the person that you want to be.

But maturity is so much more than a superficial self-respect. It is the ability to be consistently "real"; it is the ability to be the same person in every situation with every group of people - no matter what you might consider the outcome to be. It is, in short, the self-respect to withstand the difficulties of peer pressure and the courage to let your "true self" - weaknesses and all - shine through.

If you can develop this inner strength, this maturity, you will begin to act maturely. You will begin to do things that will garner respect. You will begin to walk a little straighter and stand a little taller, because you will begin to feel better. You will become a leader because you will begin to trust your instincts. Most importantly, though, you will begin to treat others with respect because you will respect yourself.

And that - respecting others through respecting yourself - is what maturity is all about.

Julia Cawthon

I'm surrounded by the few that tend to believe that they are better than anyone else. It very well could be that these people are better at things than I am, but they never get off their rars to show it. I want to know that if these people are so great, why can't they share their superior knowledge with us?

It appears to me that I am surrounded by constant whiners - they complain all the time but never lend a hand to help anything. Seriously, are you people happy being miserable?

The reasonable thing to do if you are a member of a team and you don't like the way things are going, tell the leader your suggestions or your problems rather than empty your criticism behind everyone's back.

The next thing (or gripe) that comes to mind seems absurd but is apparently common. If a person knows the responsibilities involved in joining a group, and he joins that group, does he think the responsibilities are automatically dropped just for him? Are the leaders and other team members supposed to beg these people to fulfill their responsibilities? COME ON! WE ARE COLLEGE STUDENTS!

College is not just a place or an institute; it is a place of higher learning. I think this learning involves no only learning in the classroom but also in life in general. College is a state of mind, a mentality, which we should all acquire. Classroom learning is important, but the lessons of life are the ones we will use all the time through life.

Cumberland is a small city; we all have our places and parts, and YES, they are all important. The students have to work together. We are all different, but no one is better than anyone else. Respect those that are not like you, because you will encounter different people in life.

It is really quite simple: Do your job, fulfill your responsibilities, or at least, keep your mouth shut. I have to wrap it up with a nice cliche: Lead, Follow or Get Out Of The Way!

Clockwise from top: Matt Caudle, Chris Flatt, and Steve Eubanks; The front steps of Memorial Hall is a great place to take a break between classes for Mark Collins; Clint Guernsey and Cherry Quevy take time to talk before class; Shannon Simmons, Angie Abbott, Brandy Welch, and Kristina Judkins share a great time at Homecoming; Brandi Beard and Michael Eubanks dance the night away at the Halloween Ball.

Alpha Lambda Delta officers lead the initiation activities.

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national society that honors academic excellence during a student's first year in college. Founded as an honorary at the University of Illinois in 1924, Alpha Lambda Delta became a national organization as chapters were established at Purdue in 1926 and at Depauw in 1927. Its purpose is to encourage superior academic achievement among students in their first year in institutions of higher education, to promote intelligent living and a continued high standard of learning, and to assist women and men in recognizing and developing meaningful goals for their roles in society. Alpha Lambda Delta has 214 chapters throughout the nation, and more than 425,000 students have been initiated.

Alpha Chi Honor Society

Valerie Vanatta, Tracie Tipps (1995 President), Dr. Daniel, Dr. Martin, Melinda Yarbrough, Kristy Jones, and An gela Rich.

Alpha Chi is a coeducational society whose purpose is to promote academic excellence and exemplary character among college and university students and to honor those who achieve such distinction. Its name derives from the initial letters of the Greek words ALETHEIA, meaning TRUST, and XARAKTER, meaning CHARACTER. As a general honor society, Alpha Chi admits to membership students from all academic disciplines.

Membership in Alpha Chi recognizes previous accomplishments and provides opportunity for continued growth and service. It seeks above all else to serve the needs of the students who comprise its membership. As a phrase from its constitution suggests, Alpha Chi seeks to find ways to assist them in "making scholarship effective for good."

Pi Gamma Mu

Glenda Franklin receives her pin from President Kevin Raney.

Pi Gamma Mu is the International Social Science Honor Society. Its purpose is to encourage the study of the social sciences among graduate and undergraduate students and faculty members in colleges and universities throughout the world, and to recognize outstanding achievement through election to membership and the presentation of various awards for distinguished achievement.

The Society endeavors to inspire in its honored members social service to humanity, and life interest in the study of human association. It seeks also a synthesis of all branches of social science into a philosophy of human society and human welfare.

Members of the Society may gain prestige through publication in International Social Science Review and the Pi Gamma Mu Newsletter, and may associate with eminent persons in the profession through attendance at international conventions and regional meetings. The Society's program of scholarships enables outstanding students to continue their study of the social sciences in graduate schools.

Pi Gamma Mu was founded in 1924 by Dean Leroy Allen from Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas, and Dean William A. Hamilton of the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia. The Society's colors are blue and white, symbolic of truth and light. The motto of the Society is "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The Seven Ideals of the Society are Scholarship, Science, Social Science, Social Idealism, Sociability, Social Service, and Sacrifice.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society in education founded in 1911 at the University of Illinois. Its purpose is to recognize sound scholarship, commendable personal qualities, and outstanding contributions to the field of education.

Membership is based on several factors, including cumulative grade point average, potential or achieved educational leadership, and exemplification of worthy educational ideals. Members of Kappa Delta Pi include University students, elementary and secondary teachers and administrators, and University faculty and administrators.

Members have opportunities for professional development and recognition through publications, regional and national meetings, local chapter activities, and major scholarship awards.

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau Delta is the International English Honor Society. Its purpose is to bestow distinction upon and undergraduates, graduates, and scholars in academia as well as upon professional writers who have recognized accomplishments in linguistic or literary realms of the English language.

Through the chartering of chapters on the campuses of more than 400 colleges and universities throughout the United States and abroad, Sigma Tau Delta affords exceptional students in the field of English opportunities for furthering culture, for formulating ethical principles, for developing skills in creative and critical writing, and for fostering a spirit of fellowship.

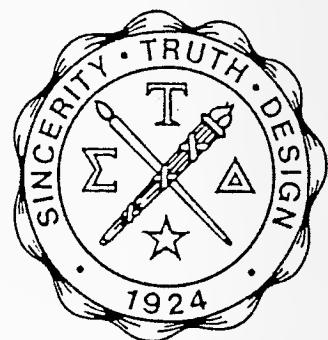

Student members of Sigma Tau Delta may gain prestige through publication in The Rectangle, Sigma Tau Delta's literary journal, and may achieve international recognition through annual awards and scholarships. Association with eminent persons in the profession of English is accorded students at the regional conventions and at the biennial international convention.

Sigma Tau Delta was founded at Dakota Wesleyan College in Mitchell, South Dakota, in 1924 by Dr. Judson Q. Owen (1888-1969), the first Executive Secretary and the first editor of The Rectangle. The official colors are cardinal and black, the official flower is the red rose, and the official motto is "Sincerity, Truth, and Design."

1995 Golf Team

The Cumberland University golf team is set for its first season of intercollegiate competition. The team was active only as a club team last year. A good class of young golfers is set to bolster the squad in what is certain to prove a tough road through the TCAC schedule. However, the youth of these golfers should not mislead the competition into thinking that these players don't have much experience. All of the athletes have been involved in a wide range of tournament golf that will prove helpful as the pressure of competition begins to get heated.

Roger Karl, head coach of the squad, is looking forward to a promising season from his golfers. The team is set for at least three tournaments and hopes to add one or two more before the Spring season ends. If the results of the Fall schedule hold true, the team should expect very positive results. The enthusiasm of the youthful players and their success thus far should lead to a long tradition of Bulldog Golf.

Homecoming Parade

(Clockwise from top): The first place winner in the float contest was Kappa Sigma. Leann Allison wants to take this '94 Vette home with her. Angie Barnes is ready to ride in the parade. Leann represents SGA during Homecoming. Sigma Alpha Epsilon took second place with their outrageous float for the parade. Parade cars and floats make their way down West Main Street.

This year's SGA sponsored Scavenger Hunt proved to be a huge success. Students brought everything from Porta-John Doors to Roadkill!

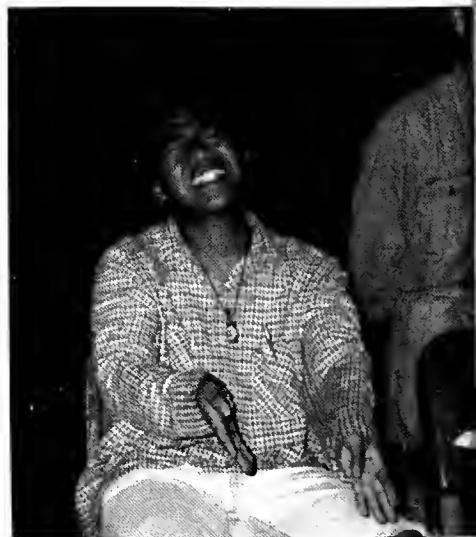

Clockwise from top): Chris Hyde got extra points for bringing in this truck tailgate. Many CU students participated in the hunt. Erin Vaughn, Danielle Harris, and Bill Hoffman count their team's items. Brian Elder shows Lenavid the roadkill he found for their team. Gabriel Donoso and Calvin Blevins found two Scavenger Hunt items they intend to keep.

Hypnotized!

CU students were "hypnotized" by the E.S.P. and Hypnosis Show put on by Ronny Romm

Clockwise from top: Tim Thiele, Kevin Neal, and Tommy Blackford have never thought this hard! Gordon Marcelo begs "No More!" It seems that Len David is having some sort of experience. Students lined up to be hypnotized by Ronny Romm. Ronny Romm amazed the audience with his E.S.P. abilities.

The PHOENIX staff would like to recognize the people who helped in putting the centennial volume of the yearbook together. Special thanks goes to: Judith Kidwell, SGA, Leann Allison, Cameron Potter, Kappa Sigma, Tri Sigma, Sonny Barrett at Seat's Studio, Custom Color, the Collegian Staff, Fran Powell, Mr. Harold McGhee, all of the clubs and organizations that helped us so much by submitting stories, season scores, and photos, and anyone else we might be leaving out that helped us in anyway.

* Special Thanks goes to *
for all of his help and efforts.

This year was a very special year for the PHOENIX. Putting the 100th edition of the yearbook was challenging, but fun. The PHOENIX staff hope you enjoy turning these pages, filled with familiar (and not so familiar) faces and places, for years to come. The PHOENIX yearbook has been around since 1895 and we hope it will be a significant part of Cumberland one hundred years from now.

The 100th Volume of the PHOENIX contains 144 pages. The cover is burgundy cordova grain. The front is a gold metalay with black rub. It is printed by Jostens.

All original art in this book was created by Eric Vaughn and Brandi Beard.
